

GODDARD OUTCLASSED

North Barre Foot Ball Eleven Ran All Over Them.

AND MADE GAINS AT WILL

Shortness of Halves Was All That Prevented the Town Team From Scoring More Than Eleven Points.

The Goddard seminary football team was easily defeated, Saturday afternoon, in its first home game of the season by the North Barre eleven by a score of 11 to 0. Goddard could do nothing against the North Barrettes, who made their two touchdowns, one in each half, with but little difficulty, and had it not been a short game would have scored more times. Only fifteen and ten minute halves were played. The teams were fairly well matched in weight, but the North Barre players had the advantage of more experience in the game and played with good team work. Though they were able to make good gains around Goddard's ends it was apparent that the seminary's line was its weakest point. Only once did Goddard hold their opponents for downs, while North Barre held Goddard every time they got the ball, and forced them to punt twice. Goddard's regular full back was laid up with lameness, and Cannell played in his place.

Goddard started the game by kicking off to North Barre, who were downed on their 20-yard line. North Barre gained steadily with end rushes and tackle formation plays to the center of the field, where Goddard took a brace and held them for downs, the only time during the game. Knapp tried twice to gain with the ball around the end, but was unsuccessful. Sawyer tried a rush around right end, but was pounced on for a loss of five yards and the ball then went back to North Barre, who fumbled in its second rush, and Knapp got the ball on Goddard's forty-yard line. Cannell then punted to the center of the field.

North Barre took a punt and rushed the pigskin to Goddard's fifteen-yard line on end plays by Jackson and McDonald, and center rushes by Gilbertson. Dombrowskie then went through the line to the five-yard mark and Turner was sent around left end and made a good try for a touchdown but was downed right on the line. He next tried to skin through Goddard's left tackle, but was held. Gilbertson was then given the ball and made the touchdown through the center. Turner tried to kick the goal, but the ball struck one of the goal posts and bounded to one side.

With one more minute left to play North Barre kicked to Knapp, who was downed on the fifteen-yard line. Cannell attempted to punt, but was blocked, and McDonald fell on the ball as was called for the end of the half.

In the last half North Barre kicked to Sawyer and he was downed on the fifteen-yard line. Goddard could not gain an inch and the ball went to the other side. In three rushes North Barre had the ball within a foot of the goal line, and in the next rush McDonald made the second touchdown. Bird kicked the goal. North Barre again kicked off to Goddard and at once held for downs on Goddard's twenty-yard line and was making fast work for another score when the time was up.

LAW FOR FRESHMEN.

The Sophomores Issue a Printed Code Stating What Must Be Done.

Burlington, Sept. 30.—Nearly all of the members of the sophomore class of the University of Vermont started out at midnight Thursday evening with paste pots and brushes, placing posters on the sidewalks, boxes, barrels and other conspicuous places on Church street and other parts of the city. When the freshmen woke up Friday morning the first thing that confronted them was the laws which they are to observe during the coming year or else suffer hazing at the hands of the upper-class men and sophomores. The posters read as follows:

- FRESHMEN TAKE NOTICE.
1. Freshmen must not smoke on the campus.
  2. Freshmen must remain seated after chapel until upper-class men and sophomores have left the room.
  3. Freshmen must not walk on the grass of the College Green.
  4. Freshmen must not walk on the north side of College street, unless accompanied by an upper-class man.
  5. Freshmen must not wear stiff hats, except on Sunday.
  6. Freshmen must not wear preparatory school numerals, letters or pins.
- These orders, drawn up by the sophomore class in accordance with the usual college customs, are approved by the upper-class men.
- If these rules are strictly obeyed further hazing will cease.

RANGERS 4, NORTHFIELD 3

Great Game of Association
Foot Ball Saturday.

FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Honor Now Lies Between Two Barre Clubs, the Rangers and the Bon-accords—Story of Saturday's Game.

The Rangers of this city defeated the Northfield association football team on Saturday afternoon at Northfield by the score of 4 to 3, thereby taking away Northfield's last chance to gain the Scampini cup, leaving the championship to be decided next Saturday, when the Rangers and Bon-accords will line up against each other at the Berlin street grounds.

Saturday's game was won by good team work, the Rangers playing a better game than they have played before for several years. The Rangers won the toss and kicked off at 2:12, and for several minutes neither side could get the ball into the other's territory, but after the ball had been in play about 10 minutes, Ewing, Northfield's outside right, scored the first goal for Northfield. After this goal the Rangers went into the game with greater zeal, and Birnie got a free kick from a foul by Northfield, and Lindsay scored for the Rangers.

The referee caught Johnston, a Northfield player, hitting the ball with his hands, and gave the Rangers a penalty kick. McIntosh failed at a goal, but a Northfield man was offside at the time the ball was kicked, so the Rangers got another penalty kick and McIntosh succeeded in getting the ball through. The first half ended with the score 2 to 1, in favor of the Rangers.

The second half opened by Northfield kicking off and within five minutes McIntosh had the ball through Northfield's goal. A Northfield player was caught hitting the ball, and McIntosh was given a penalty kick, but failed to score. Will, the Rangers outside right, got the ball past Simm, Northfield's goal keeper, and McIntosh, who was behind Simm, finished it, getting in another score, although Will should have the credit of the goal, since it would have gone through by the impetus he had given it. The Northfield team got a score through a scrimmage in front of the Rangers goal. Wright hit the ball with his fist and Northfield got a free kick from the penalty line, and scored. This ended the scoring for both teams, and time was up in another minute.

Both teams played better football on Saturday than they did at the previous game in this city. The players did not seem so anxious to make long kicks Saturday, the players in both teams being willing to pass the ball to the next man, and thereby playing a better game. There was a fairly good attendance, Barre's representation being fully as large as Northfield's.

The final game of the championship series will come off at the Berlin street grounds next Saturday, when the Rangers and Bon-accords, both of this city, will play. The line-up:

"Old Pete's" Third Strike-Out.
When the Great Umpire called the third strike on Pete Browning in Louisville the other day, a diamond hero in the youth of the men of today passed to a fairer field of action, where every player's batting average is judged as the price of the game of his endeavor.

In the prime of his years Louis Rodgers Browning headed the batting list. Hero worship is for those at the top, and when Old Pete Browning walked with easy grace to the plate with his bat under his arm and rubbed his hands with dirt all of us youngsters in the bleachers raised our voices in glad acclaim. We knew if anybody could hit the ball he could. With breathless interest we watched him as he took his position, crouching panther-like over the plate, his bat firmly gripped in his powerful hands, his keen eye watching the pitcher as he writhed in the box preparatory to hurling the ball with serpentine twist at the glove and padded backstop. And when Pete found one to his liking and let go at it for a fair hit, how we rose with the other exultant fans and shouted for the pure joy of shouting.

That was a long time ago. Pete Browning lived and played and triumphed. But one day in the tabulated score a significant "appeared before his name and at the bottom of the table was the explanatory line, "Battled for Browning in the eighth." The melancholy eloquence of that little asterisk foretold the loss of Pete Browning's batting eye. Through the gradations of the downward plunge to the ranks of the has-beens the top-notchers passes with inexorable swiftness. Younger men jostle him aside, they trample him under foot. The eyes of the climbers are upon those above, ahead, while the feet trample those below. And when a former hero finally receives unconditional release only the memory of his valiant deeds lingers in the minds of the fans who knew him in the days of his prowess—in the days when a lithe, mean victory, when a long drive to center warmed the blood of the enthusiasts and brought them to their feet, cheering the sprinting players as they scudded along the base lines.

Maybe in that blissful realm of perpetual day Pete Browning will join an all-star team. Let us trust that his batting average there will be as good as it was here.—Louisville Herald.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without result. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me."

GRAFT IN MILWAUKEE.

Report of Grand Jury Discloses State of Rampant Corruption.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 2.—The grand jury of Milwaukee county, which has been in session since June 22, completed its investigation of alleged graft and corruption in county affairs Saturday night and reported to Judge Brazee. The number of indictments returned in the final sitting was 14, involving four persons, as follows:

Cornelius L. Corcoran, president of the common council, 10 counts.
Fred C. Schultz, newspaper reporter, one indictment, bribery.
Frank C. Klode, president of a local furniture company, one indictment.
William Murphy, former alderman, two indictments.

The total number of indictments returned since the jury convened, including Saturday night's batch, will approximate nearly 150 and will affect about 40 individuals. In its report on the labors of the summer the grand jury took occasion to say that their investigation had developed a most surprising state of affairs—"vice and crime regularly organized and fostered." "We doubt," continues the report, "if one citizen in 1,000 knows the corrupt ways in which the affairs of this community have been conducted. The effort fully to expose those conditions has been opposed by the systematic resistance of powerful influences apparently syndicated to conceal the truth and encourage crime. We have been hampered by the efforts of witnesses to conceal the facts and in many of these instances it has been apparent that the witness was testifying falsely. Our observations regarding the vice and crime of perfidy is such that we must characterize it as nothing short of outrageous."

The recent raid upon gambling houses and prosecution of the keepers and inmates thereof by the district attorney's office discloses that in the city of Milwaukee there have been for years at least eight fully-equipped wide-open gambling houses. The investigation discloses, the report says, that the eight gambling houses raided were permitted in the very heart of the city and without interference to conduct common games of faro, roulette, crap and poker, while other gamblers, who sought to start such games in their places of business were promptly raided by the police.

ANOTHER BURNING THREATENED.

Texas Mob Excited About the Escape of a Suspected Negro.

Edna, Texas, Oct. 2.—Monk Gibson, a negro, arrested Friday in connection with the murder of Mrs. A. J. Condit and her children Thursday, escaped Friday night from his captors. Officers declare that Gibson knows all about the crime. He will probably be recaptured. S. H. Beasley, father of Mrs. Condit, issued an appeal to the people of the Edna community Saturday. It was to the effect that the sheriff was criminally negligent in allowing Gibson to escape, and declaring Beasley's intention of taking the negro from the authorities when recaptured and "burn him for a week," if the people would stand by him. A large number of people shouted approval and yelled at the sheriff, "Why didn't you handcuff the negro?" Sheriff Egg replied: "It's easy to ask that now, but if any of you want to make a personal matter of it, just step out from the crowd and we will settle it now." The people of Jackson county are in a high state of excitement, and many avow that they will burn Gibson when he is apprehended. The officers say they will protect the negro, and serious trouble may result.

The other two were Patrick Dowd who has a mother living at 62 Main street, Poughkeepsie and Wm. McLennan. Both are longshoremen and were boarders at the house. The fire started at the rear of a restaurant on the ground floor and spread rapidly.

EQUITABLE HAS MONEY TO LOAN.

Statement by President Morton—Big Bill for "Legislative Expenses."

New York, Oct. 2.—President Paul Morton of the Equitable life assurance society gave out Saturday the following statement: "First-class securities are difficult to get. The society is not receiving applications for loans on high-class New York real estate as rapidly as it would like to get them. It has money to invest, and is anxious to take it out of the banks and put it into mortgages. The policy of the society hereafter will be to make it easy for good people to borrow money from it on high-class property."
